

Learn more about EVPL eAccess for students

An EVPL eAccess card gives student users access to EVPL's vast array of research databases, digital collections, and online resources. Stay up to date at evpl.org/eaccess.

Databases contain information on a wide variety of topics. No matter what you're researching - whether for your personal hobby or school project, you'll find academic, peer-reviewed information from many sources. Visit evpl.org/research to access. Databases that may be helpful in the classroom include:

- Academic Search Complete by EBSCO
- Biography Reference Bank/Reference Center
- Brainfuse HelpNow (Tutoring, writing lab, etc.)
- EVPL Digital Archive (local history)
- Explora
- INSPIRE – Indiana's Virtual Library
- LinkedIn Learning
- Local/National Newspapers
- Mometrix Test Preparation
- NoveList
- Shoah Foundation Visual History Archive
- SIRS Issues Researcher

Brainfuse HelpNow offers online academic tutoring to students, as well as practice tests for adults taking the GED, HiSET, ASVAB, GRE, GMAT, LSAT, or MCAT exams, and provides career coaching to adult job seekers.

- Visit evpl.org/brainfuse to get started.
- On first use, you will need to set up an account with an email address, password, and your eAccess barcode.

Mometrix eLibrary is an exam database of over 1,000 different tests covering a broad range of industries. Covered tests include standardized school tests to career and technical certifications. Users have access to study guides, flash cards, practice tests, and videos.

- Visit evpl.org/research and click on Mometrix eLibrary.
- If off-site from a library, you will be prompted to enter your eAccess barcode.
